

The United Way of Addison County & The Committee on Substance Use & Prevention Present:

Author Kate Messner

The Seventh Wish

March 26th 1pm—2pm

Holley Hall—Bristol

The Seventh Wish

When Charlie Brennan goes ice fishing on her town's cold winter lake, she's hoping the perch she reels in will help pay for a fancy Irish dancing solo dress. But when Charlie's first catch of the day offers her a wish in exchange for its freedom, her world turns upside down.

Charlie catches the fish again and again, but each time, her wishes go terribly and hilariously wrong. Just when things are finally starting to turn around, a family crisis with her older sister forces Charlie to accept the fact that some of the toughest challenges in life can't be fixed by wishing.

"THE SEVENTH WISH is a book that's awfully close to my heart. The story opens with a morning of magical ice flowers like the ones I love to see on Lake Champlain and uses that magic to explore something that many families are afraid to talk about with kids – addiction"

- Kate Messner

